Colorado River Rafting

The river trips begins with an exciting ride down the two-mile long Glen Canyon Dam access tunnel. With the dam soaring 700 feet above you, you will board a motorized pontoon raft for your journey downstream, where you will experience one of the most dramatic stretches of river found in the western United States.

While underway, your experienced guide will tell the area's story of soaring sandstone cliffs, crystal blue-green waters, abundant wildlife, former inhabitation by native cultures, exploration by Major John Wesley Powell, and the Colorado River's modern role in the Southwest's water and power delivery system.

Your trip will also include a stop to view ancient petroglyphs left by Ancestral Puebloan peoples. Min/Max: 11/11

Age 18 & Older

Location Meet at Fort Tuthill County Park, Exit 337 off I-17

Americans with Disabilities (ADA)

Coconino County strives to make all programs, services and facilities accessible to, useable by and available to qualified individuals with disabilities. It is the responsibility of individuals or guardians of individuals participating in a Coconino County program to notify Coconino County Parks & Recreation of any physical limitations that may impair their activity in the program for which they are registered.

Cancellation/Withdraw/Transfer

Any participant enrolled in a program cancelled by Coconino County Parks & Recreation will be offered a refund in one of three ways:

1. If paying by a credit card, a full refund will be credited to the card used to enroll in the program.
2. A full refund will be given in the form of a check. Please expect 2-4 weeks for delivery.
3. A full refund will be credited to the Customer Account for use in another program or facility rental.

Any participant in a program that wishes to withdraw prior to 3 business days before the program start date can do so and receive a full refund on their Customer Account or a refund via credit card/check less an administrative fee of $6.00.

Withdrawing within 3 business days will result in a 50% refund. There are no refunds once the program starts and program fees are not refunded/prorated for participants who miss portions of programs.

Transferring from one program to another can be done anytime before the program begins at no additional charge.

Drop-In Policy

Drop-ins are welcome when space is available on many of our programs. Please make sure the course description and your fitness level are compatible. Program fees are due immediately and a registration form/waiver must be completed.

Registering is the best way to ensure your participation in a program. All programs must meet minimum numbers in order to operate. Programs that do not are canceled.

Holiday Closures

Programs typically do not run on observed holidays. On these days the administrative office will be closed. For a list of closure dates, please see our website.

Notice of Non-Discrimination

Coconino County Parks & Recreation Programs and services reflect the cultural diversity of our community. We do not discriminate on the basis of religion, race, color, gender, national origin, sexual orientation, age or ability.

Photo Policy

Coconino County Parks & Recreation reserves the right, and may grant permission to the media, to photograph programs and participants. Please be aware that these photos are for promotional purposes and may be used in future publications and media communications in any format. By participating in CCPR programs, you consent to the taking and publication of your photograph for these purposes.

Program Guidelines

1. Deadline to register is 3 days before the first day of the program.
2. Our programs must meet minimum and maximum enrollment standards. Programs may fill quickly or may be canceled due to low enrollment.
3. All programs of a physical nature involve some risk. By registering for the program of this nature, there is an assumption of risk by the participant.
4. Coconino County carries no medical insurance and assumes no liability for personal injuries or loss of personal property of persons participating in or attending Coconino County programs. Participant must cover any medical costs incurred.
5. Please dress and come prepared for any type of weather. Programs will typically run in rain, snow, or shine. Cancellations for lightning may occur.
6. It is the responsibility of the participant to know their own abilities as it pertains to outdoor recreation. If you need to know the difficulty of the program, please ask.

Waitlist Policy

If a program has reached the maximum number of participants, you will be given the option to be added to the waitlist. The waitlist is first come, first serve, and will allow you to register for the program if someone cancels their registration. You will be notified via phone if a roster spot becomes available. You will have 24 hours to respond before we move to the next person on the waitlist.

Full payment is due at time of registration.
Registration is due 3 days before the first day of the program.

1. You can register Online at coconino.az.gov/RecPrograms using CocoRec.
2. You can complete walk-in registration by coming into our main office Monday - Friday between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm.
3. You can mail-in your registration to our main office. Please include full payment payable to Coconino County Parks & Recreation. The address is: Coconino County Parks & Recreation
ATTN: Outdoor Recreation
2446 Fort Tuthill Loop
Flagstaff, AZ 86005

RECOMMENDED

Online Registration through CocoRec

This method is by far the easiest way to register for programs. To register with CocoRec, you must first set up a Customer Account. This should take only a few minutes. Once you have a Customer Account, click the Programs link on the top of the screen. From there you can find activities in numerous ways: location, program type, program subject category, and program age category. You can also enter in any of the program numbers into the search box on the right side of the screen. After you have found the program(s) you want to register for, simply add the programs into your cart. You will get a confirmation e-mail after you have paid for the program. Payment Methods: Credit Card or Electronic Check.

Walk-In Registration

To save time, we recommend that you fill out the registration form at coconino.az.gov/parks and take it to the Coconino County Parks & Recreation main office at 2446 Fort Tuthill Loop in Flagstaff, AZ. A CCPR Staff Member will then assist you in the registration process. The registration form will also be available in the main office. Your registration confirmation will be given to you by the CCPR Staff. Payment Methods: Cash, Check, or Credit Card

Mail-In Registration

To mail-in your program registration, simply fill out the registration form at coconino.az.gov/parks and supply payment in form of cash or check. Please mail those items to the address above. It is recommended that you follow-up with a phone call to ensure that the form got to the office. If you would like to pay by credit card, it is recommended that you follow the Online Registration directions above. Payment Methods: Cash or Check.
